It is our pleasure to welcome you to LIGS University – a modern university combining practical methods and innovative approaches of the American and European system of education. Our university came into existence by merging the American and the European LIGS University and has a long tradition of providing Interactive Online education. We are very pleased that we help meeting our students' expectations, namely that the MBA, MSc, DBA and Ph.D. programs provide them with new knowledge and skills needed to become even better managers and professionals.

LIGS University helps its graduates develop their critical abilities and thus gives them an advantage in the labor market. We have an experienced faculty, who leads and assists students in all courses, provides them with valuable feedback and consultations, and encourages them to pursue the highest goals.

At LIGS University we are very proud of our faculty/lecturers, who are all experts in the field of Management and Business Administration. Thanks to them, the feedback and discussions are truly beneficial for the future career and personal growth of our students. Because of this the graduates value our programs highly.

We are aware that a vast majority of our students are career students who choose to study while working full-time. It's hard to combine demanding work with studies, family life and other interests. Therefore LIGS University strives to provide its students with flexible support and all information necessary to focus solely on studying.

In the course of their studies, students have an opportunity to attend a language course combined with a trip to Hawaii. Upon successful completion of the program, the graduates earn a degree and receive a degree certificate issued by the LIGS University.

We would be very glad to introduce you to the degree programs at LIGS University and answer all of your questions in person or on a video-call. We are convinced choosing LIGS University for your studies will help you in your further professional and personal growth.

Dr. Pavel Makovsky
President
LIGS University
